FLAG Facts

The United States Flag, adopted on June 14, 1777, is the fourth oldest national flag in the world. Denmark's flag, adopted in 1219, is the oldest.

- A flag expert is called a "vexillologist."
- The blue field on the U.S. Flag is called the "union."
- On Memorial Day (the last Monday in May), to honor all who died in battle, the flag should be displayed at half-staff until noon only, then raised to the top of the staff for the remainder of the day.
- Since 1834, the U.S. Flag has flown continuously next to the grave of the Revolutionary War hero, the Marquis de Lafayette, near Paris, France.
- June 14 was proclaimed Flag Day by President Woodrow Wilson in 1916. While Flag Day was a popular celebration in scores of communities for many years after Wilson's proclamation, it didn't receive its official Congressional designation until 1949.

The United States Flag should always be treated with the utmost care and respect. Remember, the flag represents a living country, and as such, is considered a living thing.

- Always display the flag with the blue union field up – never display the flag upside down, except as a distress signal.
- It is the universal custom to display the flag only from sunrise to sunset on buildings and on stationary flag staffs in the open. However, when a patriotic effect is desired, the flag may be displayed twenty-four hours a day if properly illuminated during the hours of darkness.
- Always hold the flag carefully – never let it touch anything beneath it: the ground, the floor, water or merchandise.
- Always keep the flag aloft and free – never carry it flat or horizontally.
- Always keep the flag clean and safe – never let it become torn, soiled or damaged.
- Always dispose of a flag properly, preferably through veterans' organizations.
- Always treat the flag with respect.

Mad-Stone or Deer Pearl

This mad-stone or deer pearl is a mineral concretion that forms in a deer's stomach when calcium and other deposits accumulate around a small piece of organic matter. Hunters say they're rare and kind of a "bonus find". Like a nature-made large marble – similar in concept to pearls forming in oysters.

Old-timer lore claimed mad-stones cured snake bites or rabies! In today's reality, they're simply a fascinating bit of deer anatomy.

If you find one, handle it with care, clean it well, and you'll have a neat piece of hunting camp trivia and show-and-tell.

Chesapeake Bay Retrievers

They'll out-swim, outwork, out-hunt, and out-tough any other breed of dog on the planet.

All they ask in return is that you hold up your end of the bargain.

SPICY BLACKBERRY MOLASSES PORK CHOPS WITH SMOKED CHILI BUTTER

- 4 Bone-In Pork Chops
- 1 Cup Blackberries
- 1/4 Cup Molasses
- 2 Tbsp Chili Powder
- 1 Tsp Smoked Paprika

Preheat grill to medium-high heat. In a small saucepan, combine the blackberries, molasses, chili powder, smoked paprika, and cayenne pepper. Cook over low heat, stirring occasionally, until the blackberries break down and the mixture thickens, about 10 minutes.

Season the pork chops with salt and pepper. Grill the pork chops for 4 to 5 minutes on each side, or until they reach an internal temperature of 145°F.

While the pork chops are grilling, melt the butter in a small skillet over low heat. Add the smoked chili powder and stir to combine. Sally Brompton WEEKLY HOROSCOPE

Your weekly horoscope by Sally Brompton • November 17-23, 2025

If Your Birthday Is This Week: You will attract your share of good fortune over the coming year but to make the most of it you must be adventurous. Others can sit back and take things easy if they so wish but you need to be out there bending life to your special design.

ARIES (March 21 - April 20):

News that arrives out of the blue will cheer you up during the early part of the week but you will still have serious matters to take care of, so it's not an invitation to ignore what needs to be done. Sort out your money situation.

TAURUS (April 21 - May 21):

You may think you know better than the people you work with, and maybe you do, but that won't convince them to follow your lead. Which begs the question: why would you want them to follow your lead? Let them make their own choices.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21):

Everyone wants to do things for you of late, which is nice, but the planets warn you must not pass on your responsibilities to other people. Even if you do get outside help it's highly unlikely they will make as good a job of it as you.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23):

Your creative juices are flowing fast, so decide what it is you want to be working on and then go for it with 100 per cent effort. Don't listen to people who say you cannot hope to succeed, because in fact you cannot fail to succeed.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23):

Any lingering disputes or disagreements you may have with friends and loved ones must be faced during the early part of the week. If you are serious about finding solutions that everyone benefits from it won't be hard to locate them.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23):

Don't waste time lamenting what might have been and looking back and wondering what you could have done better. The past is over and done with and now you must fix your sights on future successes, of which there will be many.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23):

If you need to close a deal of some kind then it should be easy right at the start of the week, but the longer you let it drag the harder it will be to persuade others to play ball. Do your research today, then make it happen tomorrow.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22):

The Sun remains in your sign only until the 22nd, so if you are behind in your schedule then you need to catch up fast. Focus only on matters that are of prime importance over the next few days - issues of a personal nature can wait.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 21):

Your feelings will be of more importance than your thoughts as the new week begins, so listen to what your heart is telling you and act on that information quickly. Do NOT listen to people who say you are being overly dramatic.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 - Jan. 20):

You may have some wonderful friends and colleagues but what you aim to do next must be done on your own. Focus on your number one goal and go for it with every ounce of mental and emotional strength you possess. Make it happen.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19):

What occurs over the next day or two will alert you to the fact that your efforts in one particular area have fallen short of what you should be expecting of yourself. It's not too late to make amends, so refocus and go at it again.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - Mar. 20):

Don't worry if life seems tough at the moment because relief is at hand. Impending cosmic activity will remind you that the most important part of your existence is having fun. If what you are doing does not excite you then do something different.

Chestertown Rotary Wraps Up 2025 - A Look Back at Year 99

As December is fast approaching, the Chestertown Rotary marks the end of its 99th year – which means 2026 will be the organization's centennial celebration. That's right! Rotary has been quietly serving Kent County for nearly a century. This is a great time to share a bit about the organization and what has been accomplished this year.

The Chestertown Rotary is made up of individuals from all walks of life – professionals, business owners, retirees, volunteers, and public servants. While networking and fellowship are part of our mission, our core values center around civic duty and volunteerism.

Each year, Rotary supports local volunteer organizations through its Mini Grant Program. Instead of simply donating a lump sum, organizations are asked to submit specific requests – whether for materials, food, literature, or other items that directly support their mission. This year's grant recipients include: Good Neighbor Fund - assists with one-time emergency expenses; Local Management Board - supports children with emergency needs not covered elsewhere; Minary's Dream Alliance - Thanksgiving turkey giveaway; Rebuilding Together Eastern Shore - health and safety home repairs during National Rebuilding Month (April 2026); Open Doors - English classes for families; Samaritan Group of Kent County - emergency winter shelter; Blessing Bag Program - weekly food pantry in Rock Hall; Mt. Olive Church - creating "The Olive Garden," a nurturing space for families; Maker Space at Kent County High School - multi-color enclosed 3D printer and supplies; Sandy's Garden - seeds and supplies to grow vegetables for local food pantries; Kent Attainable

Housing - financial literacy coaching; National Alliance on Mental Illness - Community outreach and information booths; and Interact Club at Kent County High School - field trip to Heron Point and a flower beautification project.

Funding for these grants comes from Rotary's annual events, including Soup & Sip, Flags for Heroes, and the Tea Party Food Booth. Rotary also hosts a Spring Fling, with proceeds going toward scholarships for Kent County graduates – whether they're heading to college or trade school.

Beyond fundraising, Rotary members actively participate in community service projects, including: volunteering with Kent Goes Purple; conducting regular street cleanups along Morgnec Road; sponsoring the Interact Club at Kent County High School; sponsoring the Rotaract program at Washington College; and maintaining a covered seating area at Wilmer Park and benches along the Chestertown waterfront.

Additionally, Rotary donated the new three-pronged water fountain (for people, pets, and water bottles) near the public restroom at Cannon and Cross Streets.

And that's just a portion of what the organization does. Chestertown Rotary is a vibrant, active organization committed to making a difference. Want to get involved? Chestertown Rotary would love to welcome you! If you're inspired by what Rotary does and want to be part of the mission, visit www.ctownrotary.com to learn more. Here's to 100 years of service – and many more to come!

HomePorts Announces New Vehicle Donation Program; Creates Powerful Way for Donors to Support Seniors Aging in Place

HomePorts announced the launch of its new Vehicle Donation program, giving supporters of the organization yet another way to contribute to the organization's goal of helping Kent County residents ages 55+ remain independent, health and safe in their own homes.

A proven means of raising monies for non-profit organizations, the HomePorts Vehicle Donation Program will mirror that of many 501(c)(3) groups utilizing this means of driving community involvement and contributions. Well-known organizations such as Habitat for Humanity and the American Red Cross have long had these types of programs in place.

"Donors who participate in the HomePorts Vehicle Donation Program can enjoy several benefits," said Karen Carr, Executive Director. "By donating a vehicle, individuals may be eligible for a tax deduction, depending on the value and condition of the vehicle and current IRS regulations. Additionally, vehicle donation offers a convenient way to support a local charitable cause like HomePorts without the hassle of selling or trading in an unwanted car. Most importantly, donors can take pride in knowing that their contribution will directly support HomePorts in our efforts to help seniors in our community, by helping them maintain independence and quality of life".

The HomePorts Vehicle Donation Program accepts cars, trucks, motorcycles, boats, RVs, golf carts and farm equipment. Running or not. And the process is simple and straightforward. Interested parties may simply visit www.homeports.org/donate, complete the online vehicle donation form with information regarding the vehicle they'd like to donate. Then HomePorts' partner will reach out within 24 hours to help finalize details of the donation and arrange pick-up of the vehicle.

HomePorts, Inc. is a 501(c)3 charitable organization which serves to build community among Kent County, residents aged 55 and over. Their mission is to reduce isolation and loneliness through social, educational events and to identify and ensure access to services that help members remain safe and comfortable in their own homes. For more information, call 443-480-0940 or email director@homeports.org.

Community Table Returns to Chestertown with Warm Welcome and Full Plates

After being paused for several years due to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Community Table returned to Christ First United Methodist Church in early November of this year – and the atmosphere was joyful.

Neighbors from across Chestertown and surrounding communities gathered in the church fellowship hall to share a free meal, reconnect with one another, and rekindle a tradition that many have missed. The evening featured lasagna and fresh salad, with a wide variety of desserts prepared and donated by volunteers.

The room buzzed with conversation as old friends reunited and new connections were made around the tables. Volunteers shared that their hope is for the Community Table to once again become a regular gathering space where everyone is welcome.

The next Community Table event is scheduled for Monday, December 1st, again at Christ First United Methodist Church, in the Christ Building Fellowship Hall located at 401 High Street. The meal is free, and everyone in the community is invited.

Organizers emphasized that all are welcome: families, individuals, students, seniors, visitors – anyone who would enjoy a meal and a friendly place to be.

Please email communitytable@christfirstumc.church for complete details or to volunteer for Christ First United Methodist Church.

Dr. Truth

Dear Dr. Truth:
My mother is just the best. I know she reads the paper weekly. I just want her to know how much I love and respect her. My father was merely a sperm donor. I have watched my mom work two jobs to feed me. She always has been there for me. Never has she uttered a foul word about my father. Even though he hasn't been here for me I want to find him. I don't have the heart to tell Mom. How do you think she will feel? Will it hurt her? I don't want that. I need answers from my father. I hope that it's not too late. Seeker

Dear Seeker,
Initially it may hurt your mother's feelings. You say she is great; if that's the case then she will support you. Be honest with her. You said you respect her. Make sure you do. It should be fine. Good luck. This will change your life forever ... AND THAT'S THE TRUTH!
