Precision Planting

SOLUTIONS FOR EVERY SEASON

FURROWFORCE

Adaptable Two-Stage Closing System

Setting your closing system correctly is tough. FurrowForce is a two-stage closing system that adapts to your planting conditions to remove air pockets and firm soil to keep moisture, giving you confidence that your crops will germinate the best that they can.

WORKS WITH ALL PLANTERS! EQUIPPED FOR...

Beans, Corn, Cotton, Peanuts, Sugarbeets, Sunflowers & Edible Beans!

DELTA FORCE

Automated downforce control

Running a single downforce setting across an entire field causes yield loss because the setting is rarely correct. Delta Force is an automated row by row downforce control system that measures and adjusts downforce every time there is variability in your field, so your crops will thrive for optimal yields.

Honoring Our Furry Friends: Compass Pet Remembrance Service Saturday, June 15th

As the bonds we share with our beloved pets are unbreakable, so too are the memories we cherish of them. On Saturday, June 15th at 11am the community is invited to gather at Millstream Park pavilion in Centreville, Maryland for a heartfelt Pet Remembrance Service, rain or shine.

Led by Chaplain Robyn, the event aims to provide solace and support to those who have experienced the loss of a cherished pet. Whether it be a loyal dog, a purring cat, or any other beloved companion, this service offers a space for reflection, remembrance, and healing.

Attendees are encouraged to bring photos of their beloved pets to share and celebrate their lives. Through prayers, readings, and moments of quiet contemplation, participants will have the opportunity to cherish the memories of their furry companions and find comfort in the community of fellow pet lovers.

The Pet Remembrance Service will be on Saturday, June 15th at 11am at Millstream Park pavilion.

This service is open to all who wish to spend time together in worship, remembering the loss of a pet or pets. Whether you've recently said goodbye to a furry friend or if you're reflecting on the loss of a pet from years past, you're welcome to join us as we honor the bond we share with our pets.

The Pet Remembrance Service promises to be a touching and meaningful event, offering support and solidarity to all who have experienced the loss of a beloved pet. Together, let us celebrate the lives of our furry companions and find solace in memories we hold dear.

For more information about the Pet Remembrance Service or to RSVP, please contact Chaplain Robyn Brown at rbrown@compassregionalhospice.org.

Lightning SAFETY

Protect Yourself

- When a thunderstorm threatens, get inside a home or large building or inside a vehicle (not a convertible).
- Inside a home, avoid using the telephone except for emergencies.
- If outside, with no time to reach a safe building or an automobile, follow these rules:
 - Do not stand underneath a natural lightning rod such as a tall, isolated tree in an open area.
 - Avoid projecting above the surrounding landscape, as you would do if you were standing on a hilltop, in an open field, on the beach, or fishing from a small boat.
 - Get out of and away from open water.
 - Get away from tractors and other metal farm equipment.
 - Get off of and away from motorcycles, scooters, golf carts and bicycles. Put down golf clubs.
 - Stay away from wire fences, clotheslines, metal pipes, rails and other metallic paths which could carry lightning to you from some distance away.
 - Avoid standing in small isolated sheds or other small structures in open areas.
 - In a forest, seek shelter in a low area under a thick growth of small trees.
- In open areas, go to a low place such as a ravine or valley. Be alert for flash floods.
- If you're hopelessly isolated in a level field or prairie and you feel your hair stand on end - indicating lightning is about to strike - drop to your knees and bend forward putting your hands on your knees. Do not lie flat on the ground.

Sally Brompton WEEKLY HOROSCOPE

Your weekly horoscope by Sally Brompton • May 20-26, 2024

If Your Birthday Is This Week: Neptune's influence in your birthday week will encourage you to get involved in activities that benefit other people. Not only will your efforts be good for friends and colleagues and loved ones but they will be good for you as well. Altruism elevates the soul.

ARIES (March 21 - April 20):

You may possess a good sense of humor but not everyone thinks that your practical jokes are funny, so be careful who you annoy over the next few days. Most importantly, avoid making fun of people in positions of authority - or the joke could be on you.

TAURUS (April 21 - May 21):

Make the most of the Sun's final few hours in your sign to smooth over any cracks that have developed in close relationships in recent weeks. You have been rather intense of late and your relentless attitude may have put a strain on a friendship or two.

GEMINI (May 22 - June 21):

The good times are about to return and in a matter of days you will have forgotten about recent setbacks as you set your sights on a glorious future. The Sun's move into your sign means that your ambitions will soar over the next four weeks.

CANCER (June 22 - July 23):

You are holding on to something that you no longer need. Identify what that something is and then make plans to get rid of it. It may once have been useful to you but now it is tying you to the past and preventing you from moving ahead.

LEO (July 24 - Aug. 23):

It's not like you to have doubts but something is nagging at your mind and risks holding you back. As the Sun moves into a more positive area of your chart this week you can and you must adopt a more upbeat way of thinking.

VIRGO (Aug. 24 - Sept. 23):

It does not matter how big your ambitions may be you still need to get from where you are now to where you want to end up. That means you must be more radical in your thinking and more assertive in how you deal with the world.

LIBRA (Sept. 24 - Oct. 23):

If the grass looks greener on the other side of the fence then by all means leap over it. With the Sun about to move into the most adventurous area of your chart you are assured the softness of landings as you hit the ground running.

SCORPIO (Oct. 24 - Nov. 22):

If someone offers you something for nothing this week you will, of course, be suspicious, but the planets indicate they are not trying to trick you. Think about their offer by all means but don't wait too long to accept or it could be withdrawn.

SAGITTARIUS (Nov. 23 - Dec. 21):

No matter how dull life has been of late it will live up very soon. The Sun's move into your opposite sign will bring the kind of challenges you enjoy, the kind that test you to the limit. You love nothing more than proving you are the best.

CAPRICORN (Dec. 22 - Jan. 20):

Although the Sun is leaving the most dynamic area of your chart other influences will continue to inspire you. Artistic activities will remain under excellent stars for several weeks to come, so use your talents to create something of lasting value.

AQUARIUS (Jan. 21 - Feb. 19):

Although recent weeks have been mainly about keeping other people happy the cosmic tide is turning fast and in a matter of days you will be doing more of the things that you really enjoy. Don't be afraid to follow your instincts and act on impulse.

PISCES (Feb. 20 - Mar. 20):

It may seem as if something you have been trying to do is now a lost cause but the planets indicate if you keep at it a little longer a breakthrough will arrive and all the thought and effort you put in will finally be worth it.

FLAG Facts

The United States Flag, adopted on June 14, 1777, is the fourth oldest national flag in the world. Denmark's flag, adopted in 1219, is the oldest.

- A flag expert is called a "vexillologist."
- The blue field on the U.S. Flag is called the "union."
- On Memorial Day (the last Monday in May), to honor all who died in battle, the flag should be displayed at half-staff until noon only, then raised to the top of the staff for the remainder of the day.
- Since 1834, the U.S. Flag has flown continuously next to the grave of the Revolutionary War hero, the Marquis de Lafayette, near Paris, France.
- June 14 was proclaimed Flag Day by President Woodrow Wilson in 1916. While Flag Day was a popular celebration in scores of communities for many years after Wilson's proclamation, it didn't receive its official Congressional designation until 1949.

The United States Flag should always be treated with the utmost care and respect. Remember, the flag represents a living country, and as such, is considered a living thing.

- Always display the flag with the blue union field up – never display the flag upside down, except as a distress signal.
- It is the universal custom to display the flag only from sunrise to sunset on buildings and on stationary flag staffs in the open. However, when a patriotic effect is desired, the flag may be displayed twenty-four hours a day if properly illuminated during the hours of darkness.
- Always hold the flag carefully – never let it touch anything beneath it: the ground, the floor, water or merchandise.
- Always keep the flag aloft and free – never carry it flat or horizontally.
- Always keep the flag clean and safe – never let it become torn, soiled or damaged.
- Always dispose of a flag properly, preferably through veterans' organizations.
- Always treat the flag with respect.

A TEST THAT MEASURES THE AMOUNT OF LEAD IN THE BLOOD

BLOOD LEAD LEVELS

Lead can be found throughout a child's environment.

Homes built before 1978 (when lead-based paints were banned) probably contain lead-based paint.

Lead can be found in some products such as toys and toy jewelry.

When the paint peels and cracks, it makes lead dust. Children can be poisoned when they swallow or breathe in lead dust.

Lead is sometimes in candies imported from other countries or traditional home remedies.

Certain water pipes may contain lead.

Certain jobs and hobbies involve working with lead-based products, like stain glass work, and may cause parents to bring lead into the home.

For any questions or concerns about lead poisoning, please contact the Kent County Health Department, 410-778-1350, 125 S. Lynchburg Street, Chestertown, MD 21620

2024 Cicadas Primarily in Midwest

Cicadas will emerge this year, primarily in the Midwest, in late April and early May. Two different broods will emerge this year: 17-year Brood XIII in Northern Illinois and 13-year Brood XIX in parts of the Southeastern United States. A dual emergence of these two broods occurs once every 221 years - the last occurrence was in 1803 and the next occurrence will be in 2245! Although some cicadas may emerge on the Eastern Shore this year, noticeable periodical cicada emergence is not expected in this area until next year for Brood XIV, 2030 for Brood II, 2033 for Brood V, and 2038 for Brood X.

May 21, 1954 - The Kent County News

The prospects for an early start on the restoration of Urieville Pond as a sport fishing lake and a recreation area were indicated today in a letter received by Senator John R. Jewell from Ernest A. Vaughn, director of the Game and Inland Fish Commission.

It was through Senator Jewell's efforts that the idea of making this once large pond available as a recreation and fishing area for Kent countians was presented to the Commission, and related state agencies were called in to assure that the project could be carried out.

Dr. Truth

Dear Dr. Truth:

My husband visits his family often. The other day he left his briefcase at home and his phone kept ringing. I opened the case and found a phone that I didn't recognize. I answered it and someone hung up. To make a long story short my husband has had the phone over one year and only calls one number on it - his boyfriend! I am sick. Should I divorce him? He is the best friend that I have ever had and a great father. I don't want to leave him, but I don't know how I'll ever be able to trust him again and I'm concerned for my health. Saddened

Dear Saddened,

Get tested for STDs. The question of divorce I can not answer, but your "best friend" is awfully sneaky. What else might he be hiding? He may be a great father, but is lying what you want your children to learn? He made a choice. Now it's time for you to figure out what your choice will be... AND THAT'S THE TRUTH!

...And that's the Truth! Need advice? Write Dr. Truth info@tidewatertrader.com

Did you know?

REQUIREMENTS

- U.S. Coast Guard approved wearable life jacket on board for every person on the boat.
- Boating safety advocates recommend all boaters and passengers wear a life jacket at all times while boating.

READ THE LABEL

- All life jackets that are USCG approved have an approval number. Look for it to ensure your life jacket meets the law requirements and is safe.
- You may see a new label on the inside of new life jackets with a performance level icon. These are approved for use in the U.S. and Canada, whereas devices with the old labels continue to be approved in one country or the other, not both.
- Life jackets you may already own may have the old "type" life jacket label (Type I-Type V).
- The new label DOES NOT make obsolete life jackets with the old label (you can continue to use your life jacket as long as it is in good condition and appropriate for the activity).

RIGHT LIFE JACKET

- WEAR IT - The best life jacket is one you will wear.
- ACTIVITY - It should be appropriate for the recreational water activity.
- FIT - A snug fit is a proper fit. All straps, buckles, and zippers should be secure.
- CONDITION - Life jackets with a tear, broken pieces, or buoyancy loss should be disposed.

GRILL SAFETY

Before firing up your grill this season, the National Propane Gas Association reminds you to stay safe while barbecuing. Before lighting your propane grill, a few precautions will help ensure hours of safe grilling.

First, clean and check the burners and all connections on your gas grill. Use a soap and water mixture to make sure they are not leaking. Check the hoses to make sure they are not cracked, brittle or damaged. And make sure the connection between your grill and tank is tight. You can sometimes smell a leak in your grill before you see it because an odor has been added to propane to help you detect any leaks.

When you are finished grilling, don't forget to turn off the propane tank, and remember to store cylinders upright in a cool place.

This simple list of do's and don'ts can help make all of your barbecues successful:

- Do follow the manufacturer's grilling instructions for safe grilling.
- Don't grill close to the house or other structures and don't place your grill on a surface that will burn.
- Do store your propane cylinders upright in a cool place outside away from the grill.
- Don't use your grill inside a structure or store cylinders there.
- Don't let children play near a hot grill.
- Do take empty cylinders to trained professionals for filling and repairs.

Robert Hanford Ingersoll

June 13, 1947 – April 29, 2024

Robert Hanford Ingersoll of Chestertown, Maryland, passed away peacefully at his home on April 29, 2024. Bob was born at Kent and Queen's Anne Hospital on June 13, 1947. He was the second of four sons born to Daniel Winthrop Ingersoll and Clare (Pat) Stevens Ingersoll. His childhood was spent on Silver Hill Farm in Quaker Neck where he learned a great deal about nature, farming, and mechanics from his parents. After graduating from Chestertown High School in 1965, Bob attended the University of Virginia. Following a semester in Charlottesville, he transferred to the University of Maryland and studied there until June of 1967, when he surprised his parents by signing up to join the United States Navy. This decision turned out to be pivotal in Bob's life. After training to become Aviation Machinist Mate, Bob was stationed in Brunswick, Maine with Naval Patrol Squadron Ten. Patrol Squadron Ten was deployed to Iceland, the Azores, and Bermuda for extended periods during his time of enlistment, adding considerably to his world experience.

Bob married Maine resident Gladys Mobbs in 1969 and in 1970 his daughter Erica was born. When his active Navy enlistment was over in 1971, Bob returned to Chestertown with his family. He attended Chesapeake College and Washington College getting closer to his degree at each. While back in Quaker Neck going to college, he restored a farmhouse, co-edited a book, volunteered for various nonprofits, and helped start the earliest recycling effort in Kent County on Washington Avenue.

In 1973 Bob returned to Brunswick, Maine and finished his pursuit of a political science degree with a BA at the University of Southern Maine. He also joined the Naval Reserve unit at the Naval Air Station in Brunswick and began his career as a lobster fisherman by purchasing a boat with a close friend from the Navy. While he found the work to be exciting and put him on the ocean that he loved, it also was perilous and cold. Four years into the venture he retired, after nearly drowning in the Atlantic during a winter trap-hauling mishap. Bob turned to carpentry for the next phase of his career.

Bob and Gayle (nee Miller) Betts were married on July 14, 1982. Gayle had a daughter, Danielle and a son, Jason. Bob then began working as a sailboat chartering captain during warmer months. Eventually, sailing resulted in the creation of the Long Reach Charter Company, owned and operated with Gayle. Long Reach Charter would charter sailboats in Maine in the summers and then move operations to beautiful island locations during the winter months. Gayle and Bob were able to sail to many exciting and memorable locations.

Following the death of his father in 2005, Bob and Gayle moved home to Silver Hill Farm. Bob wished to be supportive of his recently widowed mother and to help her manage the farm. Bob dedicated his skills and spare time to helping make the Chestertown community a better place to live and the Chester River a better river to enjoy. His volunteer efforts were immense. He offered his contracting talents, free of any fees, to supervising important construction projects: Sumner Hall, Sultana (all of them from the Schooner Sultana to the latest Lawrence Preserve Project), the Chestertown Marina project, the Kent County Arts Council building restoration, and Kent Attainable's new and planned single family homes.

Bob also worked with Rebuilding Together Kent County on important smaller projects, worked at the polls during elections, and on the Board for the Kent County Library Foundation and ShoreRivers. Privately, he would help any individual who had a problem that he could solve. His mechanical knowledge and diagnostic skills were incredible to behold and his energy was infectious to all those around him.

Bob is survived by his wife Gayle and her children, Danielle Felts (Cory), their children Lily, Boone and Darby, and Jason Betts; his daughter Erica Ingersoll, her children, Kirk Arnold and Lyndsay Arnold; his three brothers, Daniel Ingersoll, Jr. (Kate); William Ingersoll (Susan); and Jared Ingersoll (Elizabeth King) and many cherished nieces, nephews and cousins.

A celebration of life will be held in the fall, with details to be announced.

In lieu of flowers, memorial contributions may be made to the Sultana Education Foundation (www.sultanaeducation.org), Sumner Hall (www.sumnerhall.org/donate), or ShoreRivers (www.shorerivers.org/donate).

Contact the Administrative Care Coordination Unit (ACCU) at Kent County Health Department

What is HealthChoice?

HealthChoice is Maryland's Medicaid managed care program. Most people who qualify for Medicaid are required to enroll in a Managed Care Organization (MCO). It is best to select an MCO that your doctor participates with. If your doctor does not participate in the MCO you select or are assigned to, you will need to choose another primary care doctor (PCP) to oversee your medical care.

What is a HealthChoice MCO?

An MCO is a group of doctors, clinics, and other health care providers who work together to take care of HealthChoice members health care needs. MCOs are responsible to provide or arrange for most of your health care services including most pharmacy services. Some services such as mental health and substance use disorder services and certain drugs are covered by the State and not your MCO.

The Administrative Care Coordinator serves as a local resource for all HealthChoice members. The ACCU can:

- Help you understand your HealthChoice benefits and how to access services
- Explain your MCO choices
- Help you find a primary care doctor or specialist in your MCO's network (You can change PCPs at any time.)
- Help you find a dentist (Dental services for children and adults are covered through the Maryland Healthy Smiles Program.)
- Help link you to Medicaid transportation services (MCOs are not required to provide transportation.)
- Help you get your prescriptions filled
- Explain the health care services you can get out of network and without a referral, like prenatal care (if you already started prenatal care) and family planning services
- Explain your annual right to change MCOs

More examples of help that is only a phone call away:

- More examples of help that is only a phone call away
- Explain how to renew your Medicaid benefits through the Maryland Health Connection
- Explain how to keep your information updated and how to get a new Medicaid card if your card is lost or stolen
- Help you resolve a billing issue
- Explain your appeal & grievance rights

Target populations include children, pregnant and postpartum women, individuals with disabilities (physical, mental or developmental), and homeless individuals. The ACC can help anyone who is eligible for HealthChoice.

Ombudsman

The local Ombudsman acts as an advocate for your health care needs. An Ombudsman may contact you when there are complex medical issues involving care coordination with the MCO. The HealthChoice Program may also request that an Ombudsman contact you to ensure that any complaints that you have about your health care or MCO have been resolved.

If you need help or have a complaint about your care, call the HealthChoice Help Line at 800-284-4510 or call your Kent County Health Department ACC/Ombudsman Program at 410-778-7035:

Rope Can Be Made into a Ladder for Re-entry to a Boat

Have you ever found yourself – or someone else close by – in the water and without a ladder to climb in the boat? Use a piece of rope to make a ladder. All vessels are recommended to have docking or mooring line on board. Securely tie the rope in a u-shape on either side of the boat and the person in the water can put their leg into the loop and use it for support to pull themselves up and back in the boat. Practical and potentially life-saving!

Campfire SAFETY

Sitting under the stars by a crackling fire has its appeal. It's where stories are told, sing-a-longs happen, and meals are cooked over an open flame. Campfires bring family and friends together. But campfire mishaps can cause injuries. With a few safety tips, you can prevent these accidents.

SAFETY AROUND THE FIRE

- Before setting up a campfire, be sure it is permitted. Check with your local fire department.
- If campfires are permitted, they need to be at least 25 feet away from any structure and anything that can burn.
- Clear away dry leaves and sticks, overhanging low branches and shrubs.
- Avoid burning on windy, dry days. It is easier for open burning to spread out of control when it is windy and dry.
- Watch children while the fire is burning. Never let children or pets play or stand too close to the fire.
- Attend to the campfire at all times. A campfire left alone for only a few minutes can grow into a damaging fire.
- Keep a campfire small which is easier to control.
- Never use gasoline or other flammable or combustible liquids.
- Always have a hose, bucket of water, or shovel and dirt or sand nearby to put out the fire. Make sure to put it completely out before leaving the site.
- If your clothes catch fire, stop, drop, and roll. Stop, drop to the ground and cover your face with your hands. Roll over and over or back and forth until the fire is out.
- Treat a burn right away. Cool the burn with cool water for 3 to 5 minutes. Cover with a clean, dry cloth. Get medical help if needed.

ROAST WITH CARE
If roasting marshmallows, help young children. Never shake a roasting marshmallow. It can turn into a flying, flaming ball. A heated metal skewer can cause burns.

FACT
Campfire accidents send thousands of people to emergency rooms with burn injuries every year.

Lone Star Tick Disease

The Lone Star tick bite can trigger alpha-gal syndrome, an allergy to red meat and dairy products. The bite from this tick has also been linked to gastrointestinal problems such as nausea, vomiting, diarrhea, and abdominal pain. Be sure to cover up and check for ticks after spending time outdoors.

For more information on this and other diseases from tick bites visit <https://www.cdc.gov/ticks/index.html>.

Who's Cookin' with Carla?

APPLE DUMPLINGS

- Cooking Spray
- 2 Large Granny Smith Apples, peeled and cored
- Two 8 Oz Cans Refrigerated Crescent Rolls
- 3/4 Cup Unsalted Butter
- 1 Tsp Ground Cinnamon
- 1/4 Tsp Kosher Salt
- 3/4 Cup, plus 2 Tbsp Packed Light Brown Sugar, divided
- 3 Tbsp Apple Brandy
- 1 Cup Citrus-Flavored Soft Drink (like Mountain Dew)
- Whipped Cream

Preheat oven to 350°F. Coat a 13- x 9-inch baking dish with cooking spray; set aside.

Cut apples evenly into eight slices each. Unroll crescent roll dough, separating triangles and placing them side-by-side on a work surface. Place one apple slice along the wide side of each triangle and roll up completely. Repeat process with remaining apple slices and dough. Arrange wrapped apple slices in prepared baking dish.

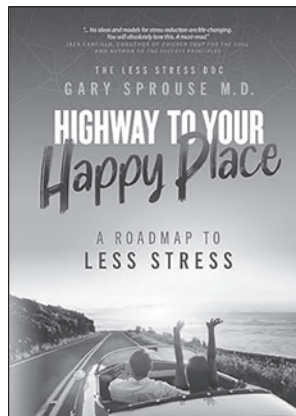

Melt butter, cinnamon, salt, and 3/4 cup of the brown sugar in a medium saucepan over medium-low, whisking occasionally, until sugar is dissolved, about 3 to 5 minutes. Bring mixture to a boil, whisking constantly, until mixture is slightly thickened, about 2 minutes. Remove from heat, and whisk in brandy.

Pour butter mixture evenly over crescent rolls in prepared baking dish. Pour citrus-flavored soft drink around crescent rolls in prepared baking dish. Sprinkle tops of crescent rolls evenly with remaining two tablespoons brown sugar. Bake in preheated oven until crescent rolls are evenly browned and apples are tender, about 35 to 40 minutes. Remove from oven, and let stand in baking dish for 5 minutes before serving. Top warm dumplings with whipped cream; serve immediately.

The Less Stress Doc Delivers a Roadmap to Less Stress in Highway to Your Happy Place

Everyone wants to have less stress. In his new book, Highway to Your Happy Place: A Roadmap to Less Stress, Gary Sprouse M.D. – also known as The Less Stress Doc – reveals tools to help people reduce or eliminate stress and enjoy their lives.

Dr. Sprouse is extremely passionate about bringing happiness into people's lives through humor, compassion, and understanding. He has a unique perspective on stress that no one else is talking about. He has uncovered a groundbreaking new way to define where the majority of human stress originates. This new insight – and the tools he developed to deal with stress – can change lives.

The main themes are: We were meant to be in our Happy Place but many of us don't know what it is or where it is; Roadblocks of stress keep us from our Happy Place; The majority of human stress is actually due to the side effects of our skills; and The Less Stress Doc has tools to get rid of the roadblocks so people can spend more time in their Happy Place.

Best-selling author Jack Canfield reviewed the new book and said, "In the span of getting to know Dr. Gary Sprouse and reading his book, I have been introduced to many new concepts and ideas. His ideas and models for stress reduction are life-changing. You will absolutely love this. A must read."

Dr. Sprouse has appeared on television and podcasts, and he has been featured in international articles. He is currently booking speaking engagements with corporations, professional organizations, networking groups, caregivers, medical practitioners, women's groups, AA meetings, and recovery groups.

Highway to Your Happy Place is available in paperback, hardcover, and ebook on Amazon and Barnes & Noble. An audio book version is coming soon. Dr. Sprouse's "Happiness Highway" podcast is on Youtube. Visit www.facebook.com/lessstressdoc to follow him on Facebook.

Dr. Gary Sprouse is a retired primary care physician who practiced in Maryland for 38 years. He graduated from George Washington University Medical School in the top 10% of his class and is a member of Mensa. He has taken everything he has learned about stress reduction to create tools that help people control stress and enjoy their life. A TEDx talk is in development. A nonprofit foundation, the Happy Place Society, is also being developed. For more information, visit www.thelessstressdoc.com.

Getting Acquainted with Herbs

The merry month of May brings May Day, May Baskets, May Festivals, May Pole, May Wine, and the traditional herb of the season, Galium Odoratum, better known as Sweet Woodruff.

When marinated in Rhine wine sweet woodruff is the beverage called Mae Bowle, served at festivals celebrating the spring season. The small white blossoms floating in the Mae Bowle serve as a decorative touch and proof of the added flavor to the wine. They are edible and are also used as a garnish for other dishes.

A ground-covering plant that likes the shade, woodruff is valued for its flowers and sweet smelling foliage. Although the fresh leaves have no distinct fragrance, when dried they have the fragrance of new mown hay, a grassy vanilla-like scent.

A bowl of dried woodruff at the entrance of a home is a sign of welcome. This herb can be used in potpourri and also act as an insect repellent due to the content of coumarin in the plant.

As a culinary herb it is used to flavor tea and ice cream, as well as May Wine.

In Germany the syrup made from woodruff is called Waldmeister and is used to flavor beverages and the beer known as Berliner Weisse.

This aromatic shade-loving ground cover is also deer and rabbit repellent herb.

Questions about Community Resources in the area?

Can't find a Dental Provider?

Can't find a Doctor?

What is HealthChoice?

HealthChoice is Maryland's Medicaid managed care program. Most people who qualify for Medicaid are required to enroll in a Managed Care Organization (MCO). It is best to select an MCO that your doctor participates with. If your doctor does not participate in the MCO you select or are assigned to, you will need to choose another primary care doctor (PCP) to oversee your medical care.

What is a HealthChoice MCO?

An MCO is a group of doctors, clinics, and other health care providers who work together to take care of HealthChoice members health care needs. MCOs are responsible to provide or arrange for most of your health care services including most pharmacy services. Some services such as mental health and substance use disorder services and certain drugs are covered by the State and not your MCO.

The Administrative Care Coordinator serves as a local resource for all HealthChoice members. The ACCU can:

- Help you understand your HealthChoice benefits and how to access services
- Explain your MCO choices
- Help you find a primary care doctor or specialist in your MCO's network (You can change PCPs at any time.)
- Help you find a dentist (Dental services for children and adults are covered through the Maryland Healthy Smiles Program.)
- Help link you to Medicaid transportation services (MCOs are not required to provide transportation.)
- Help you get your prescriptions filled
- Explain the health care services you can get out of network and without a referral, like prenatal care (if you already started prenatal care) and family planning services
- Explain your annual right to change MCOs

More examples of help that is only a phone call away:

- More examples of help that is only a phone call away
 - Explain how to renew your Medicaid benefits through the Maryland Health Connection
 - Explain how to keep your information updated and how to get a new Medicaid card if your card is lost or stolen
 - Help you resolve a billing issue
 - Explain your appeal & grievance rights
- Target populations include children, pregnant and postpartum women, individuals with disabilities (physical, mental or developmental), and homeless individuals. The ACC can help anyone who is eligible for HealthChoice.

Ombudsman

The local Ombudsman acts as an advocate for your health care needs. An Ombudsman may contact you when there are complex medical issues involving care coordination with the MCO. The HealthChoice Program may also request that an Ombudsman contact you to ensure that any complaints that you have about your health care or MCO have been resolved.

If you need help or have a complaint about your care, call the HealthChoice Help Line at 800-284-4510 or call your Queen Anne's County Health Department ACC/Ombudsman Program at 443-262-4482 or 443-262-4456:

WE CAN HELP

NEW: LOWER LEAD ACTION LEVEL

To better protect Maryland children, effective October 28, 2022, the blood lead level of concern was lowered to 3.5 micrograms/deciliter. A lower level is a reflection of the progress Maryland has made in reducing childhood lead exposures. This new lower level means there will be additional children identified who may benefit from state and local resources available to help families with lead-exposed children.

Acceptable blood levels will decrease from 5 micrograms/deciliter to 3.5 micrograms/deciliter.

No Level of Lead is Safe

Because there is no safe level of lead in a child's body, all children in Maryland are required to be tested for lead at ages one and two years or when lead exposure is suspected. Your child may be tested for lead as part of their regular care by a doctor or clinic. Be sure to ask your doctor or clinic about testing your child for lead.

If a test for lead is positive, your doctor will provide guidance and will perform follow-up testing for your child. Be sure to follow your doctor's directions carefully and allow officials to provide services, including educational recommendations, to help limit future lead exposure, information on healthy nutritional choices, environmental testing of your home and services to reduce lead-based paint hazards.

Mom's CLOTHESLINE Rules

- ❑ The clothesline must be wiped before hanging clothes.
- ❑ Socks must be hung by their toes.
- ❑ Hang sheets and towels on the outside line so "unmentionable" clothing is hidden.
- ❑ Clothes must hung in order - whites hung first and with other whites.
- ❑ Shirts must always hang by the tail - never the shoulders.
- ❑ Line up the clothes so that each item shares one of the clothespins with another item.
- ❑ It doesn't matter if it is below zero outside - the clothes will still be hung on the line. They'll just "freeze-dry"!
- ❑ Clothespins must be gathered when clothing is removed from the line. Never leave clothespins on the line.

Maryland's Striped Bass Emergency Closure Continues through May 15th

The Maryland Department of Natural Resources reminds anglers that Maryland's striped bass fishing closure began on April 1st and runs through May 15th in the Chesapeake Bay and its tributaries.

Emergency regulations, enacted by the Atlantic States Marine Fisheries Commission and approved by Maryland General Assembly's Joint Committee on Administrative, Executive, and Legislative Review, were put in place to try to better protect large migratory striped bass after several years of below average spawning success. The regulations effectively closed Maryland's "trophy" season during which striped bass longer than 35 inches have been harvested in Chesapeake Bay waters.

As in past years, targeting striped bass in the Chesapeake Bay and its tidal tributaries has been prohibited throughout April. Catch and release is prohibited and anyone who accidentally catches a striped bass must release it into the water immediately. Emergency regulations have extended the closure – which prohibits all targeting – an additional two weeks, through May 15th. This violation is punishable by fines up to $1,000 for the first offense, and up to one year in jail and/or a $2,000 maximum fine for second offenses.

Given the changes, Maryland Natural Resources Police (NRP) encourages the public to familiarize themselves with the new regulations. NRP plans on regular enforcement patrols to identify striped bass targeting and out-of-season takes.

Similar to the annual striped bass closure in the last two weeks of July, where temperatures are at their peak in Maryland, these two weeks in May are closed for the benefit of the species. The closure in April and May is meant to encourage a healthy spawn as large striped bass make their way from the Atlantic Ocean and up the Chesapeake Bay to spawn in the same Maryland tributaries where they were spawned.

The closure is extended through May 31st in the Susquehanna Flats, Lower Susquehanna River, and North East River. This area is an important striped bass nursery in the upper Bay that in recent years has remained closed to targeting later than the rest of the Bay.

Violation of this closure is punishable by fines up to $1,000 for the first offense, and up to one year in jail and/or a $2,000 maximum fine for second offenses.

Anglers are encouraged to target other fish during this emergency closure. Blue catfish and snakeheads are invasive species that have a sportfishing following and harvesting them contributes to a healthier ecosystem in the Bay. Tips and methods for fishing blue catfish can be found on the DNR website.

In the Chesapeake Bay, early summer regulations return on May 16th for certain areas, and on June 1st for the entirety of the Bay and its tributaries.

More information on Maryland's state fish can be found on DNR's striped bass webpage. The department also shares guidance on responsible catch and release, as well as an advisory forecast for fishing striped bass in the summer. Visit www.news.maryland.gov/dnr.

Rock N' Roll with Josh Christina Returns to The Mainstay

Josh Christina will perform at The Mainstay on May 31st.

On Friday night, May 31st The Mainstay is thrilled to welcome the rockabilly sounds of pianist Josh Christina and his band The Revivals.

Pianist Josh Christina is a rock 'n roll trustee who puts his own original spin on Rockabilly while still staying true to its roots. He writes his own music, refurbishes the classics, and plays a mean piano with no holds barred. As one local reporter so aptly phrased it, "Think of a mix between Jerry Lee Lewis, Elvis Presley and Elton John and you've got Josh Christina." His powerful and muscular approach to the piano most often draws comparisons with the iconic rock n' roll figure Jerry Lee Lewis. One music critic remarked "I can't remember when I've ever written a review where I've had the opportunity to compare someone to the legendary Jerry Lee Lewis – but Christina makes the grade and matches Lewis's wildness for sure."

Josh always promises a high energy performance for audiences of all ages. This show is scheduled for The Mainstay's outdoor stage, weather permitting.

Tickets are $20 in advance of the show and can be purchased online by visiting the webpage www.mainstayrockhall.org. ## U.S. Government Invests $1,071,000 for University of Maryland Eastern Shore's New School of Veterinary Medicine

Legislation signed into law by President Biden

U.S. Senator Chris Van Hollen, a member of the Appropriations Committee, and U.S. Senator Ben Cardin (both D-Md.) announced $1,071,000 in direct federal funding for the University of Maryland Eastern Shore's (UMES) School of Veterinary Medicine within the fiscal year 2024 funding package passed by the Senate. These funds, included at the Senators' request, will support UMES in establishing a new Doctor of Veterinary Medicine Program, making UMES the second HBCU in the country and the first university in Maryland to offer such a program. The program will prepare students for careers as pet and agricultural veterinarians and support the industry's growing demand.

"Investing in the education of Maryland's future veterinarians will help protect our agricultural economy and improve access to veterinary care. These funds will make UMES a regional pioneer, providing top-notch education in veterinary medicine and creating opportunity for students to enter an understaffed but critical field," said Senator Van Hollen.

"The Eastern Shore is a powerhouse for agriculture in Maryland. Establishing a program at one of the region's premier institutions will provide more opportunities for young people to learn the tools of the trade in their own backyard," said Senator Cardin. "With the proven track record of UMES student and professor success stories, we know this program will provide a valuable pipeline to an industry that is in critical need of well-trained professionals."

Upper Shore Aging Launches Diabetes Screening and Health Education Program

Upper Shore Aging recently received a $279,500 grant from the Thome Aging Well Program to launch its new Diabetes Screening and Health Education Program and use that screening and outreach as a catalyst for engaging and re-engaging seniors in its Senior Centers. The Thome Aging Well Program, funded by the Edward N. and Della L. Thome Memorial Foundation, awarded $6 million to ten Maryland and twelve Michigan nonprofits to support aging-in-place initiatives. The programs focus on improving older adults' physical, mental, and financial health, supporting their productive aging, emotional well-being, and social engagement, as well as improving the built environment that enhances their physical safety.

Theresa Barker, MS

More than 100 applications were submitted for the grants, signifying that there is a great demand for funding to enhance and expand proven programs within senior communities.

Upper Shore Aging's program is offered to seniors who reside in Caroline, Kent, or Talbot counties. Through a series of weekly health education offerings beginning in May 2024 at the Kent, Talbot, and Caroline senior centers, class participants can enjoy a fun setting with activities, challenges, and prizes – all with the focus of improving their health and their quality of life.

To kick off the program, Upper Shore Aging has hired Theresa Barker, MS, as its part-time Health Educator in implementing the program. Passionate about healthy lifestyles and disease prevention, Barker's dedication and enthusiasm aim to empower individuals, foster community wellness, and build meaningful relationships in the communities served by Upper Shore Aging.

"Theresa is committed to enhancing the well-being of seniors in our community. She possesses a unique blend of knowledge and compassion, essential for positive health outcomes. With contributions to health information services research at the NIH, blood and

Kent County Public Schools Celebrates National Youth Apprenticeship Week

Kent County Public Schools joined in the celebration of National Youth Apprenticeship Week, May 5th through 11th.

The state has established the expectation that by 2032, 45% of graduating seniors earn an industry-recognized credential through a career and technical education (CTE) program or complete the equivalent of a high school-level apprenticeship.

Kent County Public Schools continues expanding its Youth Apprenticeship Program to meet that goal. Those efforts led to the school system welcoming this year three new apprenticeship partners: Owings and Sons Inc., the State Highway Administration, and Modern Stone Age Kitchen. These businesses and agencies join Kent County Public Schools' roster of apprenticeships sites including Dixon Valve, Red Acres Hydroponics, Greenscapes Landcare, Horsey Construction, and Chesapeake CNC Manufacturing.

"This week, we celebrate those workplaces and we applaud our student apprentices for their commitment to work-based learning," said Tom Porter, who coordinates the CTE and apprenticeship programs for Kent County Public Schools.

According to the U.S. Department of Labor and Apprenticeship USA, the number of students participating in apprenticeship program increased 118% over the last decade, from 119,996 to 262,221 youths.

Two Kent County High School students are currently enrolled in apprenticeships, Ethan Clark at Chesapeake CNC Manufacturing and Trevor Fuchs at Owings and Sons.

During his apprenticeship work periods, Fuchs can be found working fields and pursuing his career dreams in farming. "I wanted to work in agriculture," Fuchs said of why choose to sign on with an apprenticeship at Owings and Sons.

Likewise for Clark, he saw an apprenticeship at Chesapeake CNC Manufacturing as an opportunity to get a jumpstart in the workforce. "I encourage everyone to try and get an apprenticeship, it gives you an idea to see if you like the field of work that you choose," Clark said.

"It also can carry over into summer, depending on you and your employer, so you have the chance of having a good summer job."

marrow cancer research at UM Medical Center, and support for palliative care patients and family members at Luminis Health, she brings a wealth of expertise applicable to human services organizations," comments Andy Hollis, Executive.

The program will initially focus on participants of the Meals on Wheels program with a free screening for diabetes, but will not be limited to them. It will reach out to individuals who may not have returned to their activities after COVID to re-engage them in classes and activities. Meals on Wheels participants will also have access to fresh fruits and vegetables.
